

No Veteran Left Behind Program:

Veterans who are able to help train their own service dog are matched with a rescued dog. We also match disabled veterans with a volunteer trainer from our national network of qualified service dog trainers. Volunteers check in with teams to ensure they are making progress in their training.

We provide veterans with ID badges, certificates, info on A.D.A. laws, service dog training instructions. They learn to train dogs tasks such as medication alert, blocking someone from approaching too fast, removal from stressful situations and much more. This help veterans to regain their independence and return back into civilian life. Once veteran/service dog teams have completed the program, they must help another team.

In House Service Dog Program

The Working Dogs For Vets In House Program service dog training from start to finish for disabled veterans if their disability prevents them from training their own service dog through the No Veteran Left Behind Program. On average a service dog training for Post traumatic Stress Disorder (P.T.S.D.) takes 6 mo-1yr, many of the in house service dogs have been trained tasks to help P.T.S.D. coupled with another disability such as mobility support. Some have been trained over 2 years and then given to the disabled vet at no cost. We are a 501(c)(3) non-profit volunteer based organization.
